NORTH-WEST WARRIORS.

Provincial Secretary, Major Bennett, and His Aides.

THE NORTH-WEST is generally conceived "Wild and Woolly." In plain, canton, white and black, blood and fire lingo, it means that its people are a fearless, care-free, courageous, emergent, wide-awake and up-to-date lot.

Aye, and it's even so, and this same "something" has its influence beyond the edge of the prairie, and is felt even "back East," and tickled by that officer who receives their orders to "Get out, young man." This mortal Soul, "Get out there," and beyond, and still would be driving across the Rockies about six times before he can speak for that strange "something" in the air."

MAJOR HENRY BENNETT, the worthy Provincial Secretary of the North-West Province, has partaken of that spirit, and his achievements in driving, inspecting his troops and scouting new prairie fields.

The Winnipeg "Tribune" always friendly, reports the Major's return from a recent trip, bringing several buffalo horns and heads for the International S. A. Exhibition at London.

He has 27 Corps and 14 Circles
Gangs Brigades, as well as two Training Garrisons, a Workmen's Hatch, a Woman's Rescue Home and Children's Shelter under his supervision.

He has been a jolly, jocund, genial,
jubilant Salvationist for twelve years,

saw mynought in York-hire, but emigrated to Canada some years later, his first introduction to the land of the free being at Halifax, N. S., where he imbibed too freely of bad whisky
the moment he landed.

He joined the Salvation Army in Toronto. While in a bar-room of a York Street hotel, a soldier of the Field and Blue type entered and asked the inmates to come to the barracks. He joined them later on, and for twelve years has been a red-hot fellow after sin and crookedness. He has had a large experience in Field think more so than others. No cunners

During the Major's regime sixteen Corps have been opened, including two or three transferred from the U. S.

was transferred from England to Can-

FOR HOLINESS SEEKERS

What a Red-Hot Man Says.

By STAFF-CAPTAIN DRENGLE, in
"Helps to Holiness."

Were you at the holiness meeting?

Did you come out to the penitentform? Did Jesus make your heart clean? Did you receive the Holy Ghost? If you gave yourself to God in the very best way you knew of, but did not receive the Holy Ghost, I beg of you not to be disengaged. Do not take a backward step. Stand where you are and hold fast your faith. The Lord means to bless you. Keep looking unto Jesus, and fully expect Him to satisfy your heart's desire. Tell Him you expect it, and plead His promises. He says: "I know the thoughts I think toward you; thoughts of peace and not of evil to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon Me, and ye shall say, 'Come and pray unto Me.' And ye shall say, 'Search me with all your heart, and I will find out of you saith the Lord.' (Jer. xxix. 11-14.) This is a wonderful promise.

Everyone who wears the ENSIGN BOB SMITH is, more especially those Western people from Port Arthur to Victoria. What marks him immortal is his Out-Door work among the miners, Indians and Chinamen of the British Columbia Mountains. He has been an Army chap for about nine years, and is a good, old-fashioned, steady, plodding warrior, and is loved by everybody for his sterling Godliness.

ADJUTANT ALICE GOODWIN is a noted woman warrior, having entered the battle in 1887, and is one of Kingston's front rank fighters in the field.

She has had many important commands in Ontario, and has done valiant service among the French Canadians of Quebec. She has done excellently in Manitoba, at Brandon and Winnipeg, and now takes command of Jamestown, N. D., Corp., and District.—F. E. S.

an officer nearly ten years, entering the Field at Halifax, September, 1886. She is a well-known fighter all over the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and Ontario, and is doing well as a D. O. in North Dakota. Her reputation as a woman warrior is fully established.

ENSIGN LEE is a burly boy, having entered the Field that Corps, October, 1885. He has made a reputation for himself in Ontario, and has been "our W.C." over a year, at several Corps in Manitoba and North Dakota.

ADJUTANT JOHNNY GALE has been a "wild" Salvationist ever since he was known to Canadian courtesies. He holds from the old country and has done thirteen years in Army service. He is well-known to Ontario Salvationists, and is now establishing a name for himself in North Dakota, as Grand Forks District Officer. He is a genuine Salvationist.

$610 FOR TALENT SCHEME.

I am very happy to say that the Talent Scheme in this Province has been a great success, and that the total amount raised is six hundred and ten dollars. Great credit is due to the Officers, and especially those who got their targets, and those that went above. One Corp got $70, another $60, and another $40. Our Officers in this Province know and practise the gospel of hard work, our soldiers are well to the front on the same line.—H. B.

MAJOR DENNETT has been visiting a number of his Corps, and has had some splendid victories. At Brandon, one songless salvation and two sanctification. Six Officers from surrounding Corps assisted. J. S. Sgt.-Major Burrough and the F. O.'s are doing well with the Juniors. The D. O. takes one Company.

VIRGINIA IS IN good trim with 25 soldiers on the roll.

Collie Campbell, an Ontario boy, is Captain at MOOSOMIN, and is preaching the Gospel. The Major thinks there are two Sisters in the Corps who should be Officers. Should you be an Officer?

Capt. McKey and Lieut. Magee at MOOSE JAW have a lot of difficulties, but the war goes on. At REGINA one soul was saved, and Emma Green fine things in good shape.

After CARIBEILLY came Portage La Prairie, where Major Collie, the Chief Assistant of the North-West Province, joined the battle, and one of his old school mates got saved. He says their new Barracks is "All right."

The North-West Province raised $610 for the Talent Scheme.

Major Friedrich walked 15 miles when visiting Roseland in the British Columbia Mountains, in preference to the shumpty-shup of the stage-coach.

experience of joy, the devil would tempt me with the thought that I had in some way grieved the Holy Spirit, and that He was leaving me. But God taught me to hold fast the profession of my faith without wavering." (Heb. x. 20.) So I say to you, don't think He has left you because you are not overflowing with emotion. Hold fast your faith. He is with you, and will not leave you after the hard time He has had to get fully into your heart, without first letting you know just why He goes. The Holy Spirit is not capricious and fickle. He has to strive long to get into your heart, and He will strive long before He will leave it, unless you wilfully harder him heart and drive Him from you.

I am not writing this, however, for those who are careless and would as soon grieve Him as not. But for you whose hearts are tender, who love Him, and would rather die than lose Him out of your hearts. I say to you, trust Him. When I had almost yielded to the lie of Satan that the Lord had left me God gave me this text: "The children of Israel tempted the Lord, saying, 'Is the Lord among us or not?' " (Ex. xvii. 7.)

I saw that to doubt God's presence with me, even though I felt no special sign of His presence, was to tempt Him, so I premised the Lord then that I would not doubt, but would be strong in faith. Glory to God for ever! He has not left me yet, and I am persuaded He never will. I can trust my wife, when I can't see her, and so I have learned to trust my Lord, even if I do not always feel the same mighty stirrings of His power in me. I tell Him that I trust Him, and I do believe He is with me, and I won't please the devil by doubting.

Right here, after having received the Holy Ghost, many people get into confusion, in time of temptation they think He has left them, and instead of trusting and acknowledging His presence, and thanking Him for stooping so low as to dwell in their poor hearts, they begin to seek Him as though He had not already come, or had gone away. They should stop seeking at once, and go to fighting the devil by faith, and telling Him to get behind them, and go to praising the Lord for His presence with them. If you will seek light when you have light, you will find darkness and confusion, and so if you begin to seek the Holy Spirit when you already have Him, you will grieve Him. What He wants is that you have faith. Therefore, having received Him into your hearts, continually acknowledge His presence, obey Him, glory in Him, and "He will abide with you for ever," and His presence will be power in you.

Do not keep seeking and crying for more power, but rather seek, by prayer and watchfulness and study of your mind and the honest improvement of every opportunity, to be a perfectly free channel for the power of the Holy Ghost Who is now in you. Believe God and get yourself out of the way of the Holy Ghost, that He may work through you. Ask Him to teach and guide you, that you may not hinder Him in His work. Seek to think His thoughts, to speak His words, to feel His love, and to release His truth. Seek to be guided by Him that you will pray when He wants you to pray, sing when He wants you to sing, and last,

Don't think, however, when the tide flows out to "low-water mark" that the Comforter has left you. I remember well how, after I had received the Holy Ghost, I would for weeks under a weight of Divine joy and glory that was almost too much for my body to bear. Then the tide began to subside, and there would be alternate days of joy and peace; and on the days when there was no special experience of joy, the devil would tempt me with the thought that I had in some way grieved the Holy Spirit. "Walk in the Spirit," "Be filled with the Spirit."

Finally, do not be surprised if you have very unusual temptations. You remember that it was after Jesus was baptised with the Holy Ghost that He was led into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil for forty days and forty nights. (See Matt. iv. 16, 17, and Jr. 1:5: "The disciple is not above his master." But when you are tempted count it all joy. (James 1:2) For very trials and temptations will help you into a deeper acquaintance with Jesus; for as He was, so are we to be in this present world. Remember He has said: "My grace is sufficient for you," and it is written of Him: "For in that He Himself hath suffered, being tempted, He is able to succour them that are tempted" (Heb. ii. 18); and again: "We have not as High Priests which cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin" (Heb. ii. 18). But, "What shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Rom. viii. 31.)

Be true; be full of faith, and you will be able to say with Paul: "In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loves us. For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom. viii. 37-39).

A VISITOR TO H. Q.

FROM THE COMMANDANT'S OFFICE, COLONY, NEWFOUNDLAND.

A visitor from "a far-off shore" to Headquarters on Thursday was Mr. Wm. Bell, a prominent ship-builder and contractor—an every day Canadian and a warm-hearted Army friend from St. John's, Newfoundland.

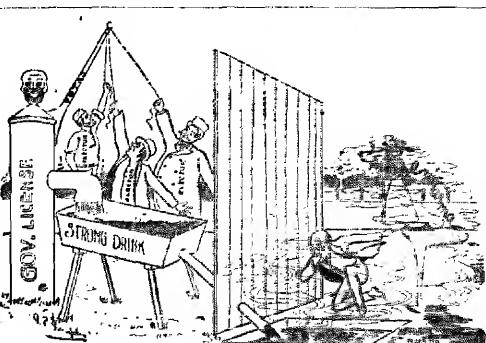

He was shown over the Temple and the Trade and Printing Department by Major Read, and carried back to the beautiful Island his name set up in type by the Rogers Typewriting Company, as a memento of his visit to the Army Headquarters.

"Oh, yes, I know St. John's; he invited 'Perpetual Motion' when he was over there, ha! ha! ha!"

The vessel on which Mr. Bell came to Halifax was delayed considerably by ice floes; he says the whole coast from St. John's to Cape Bonavista was blocked by ice blown in from the ocean.

Two steamers and a schooner were crushed by the ice and lost, while the North-East Coast, Newfoundland.

THE WAR CRY.

Eastward, Ho!

WITH THE COMMANDANT.

HIS FAREWELL VISIT to HALIFAX, ST. JOHN, MONTREAL and KINGSTON.

Tremendous Demonstrations of Love, Loyalty and Enthusiasm—
A New Rescue Home Building Opened at St John, N.B.

BY MAJOR STREETON.

It was 8.45 on Monday morning at the Union Depot, Toronto, when there was a rallying of officers to give to the Commandant a hearty send-off to the "Land of Evangeline," to say good-bye to his loyal and devoted troops.

On board the train, with an ever-vigilant with the affable Christian gentleman, "who could not complain of not having enough light but too much," who was told that "the only guarantee of a real religion was the state of freedom from condemnation," or the playing of the concertina and the

RATTLING AWAY AT THE TYPE-WRITER."

The Commandant found no difficulty in "passing the time away." And did not the P. S. hear someone remark, "He is a born 'airrew' gentleman," and will he indeed, on his arrival be born the subject of a downright, straight talk by the Commandant on the uncertainty of politics, etc., etc.?

Then there was the interviewing of officers at Montreal while waiting for the train to whom "Eastward" for Halifax.

At St. John's, too, there were evidences of the hearty welcome to the East. Here was the energetic and affectionate Brigadier Scott, with his officers, firing volleys, as the train arrived, and we spent till midnight, when we arrived at our destination.

THE OFFICERS' COUNCILS.

These were inspiring and cheering to all. From the first testimony to the last, those dear Eastern Comrades were full of expressions of sincere love and gratitude to God for the many blessings they had received through the influence, example and practice of their leaders; and of Mrs. Booth, especially, who there much said, and often—how they do feel to see her, if only but once.

owner, Adjutant Andrews. The Adjutant got him there, but one was almost forced to stay when Mrs. Andrews brought in the turkey. My, what a turkey! for size, length, breadth, height—she urged us I ever saw!

THE MARCHING AROUND THE WALLS.

There was a march around the city, with officers and soldiers dressed according to instruction from their Provincial Officer, for is not this Brigadier Scott a marvel for decorations at demonstrations? There were long hats, round hats, flat hats, and the colors of the rainbow, in great style; D. D.'s more than one.

Well might the Commandant say to the P. S.: "Well, that was the best meeting I have had in Halifax!"

THE MOLASSES.

Molasses? Poor word! Did not the Brigadier and Adjutant Coombs pile it on? Poor Commandant! he would have been better outside during the serving of the molasses. Then the reading of the farewell address.

To say that the Commandant was at his best, will give those who have had the privilege of listening to him at any time when he has "got off," an idea as to how things went. There was the clever handling of the question of the difficulties overcome in the last four years, and the glory to God for the advancements in the number of Officers, Soldiers, and the financial standing. After the meeting we heard that enterprising Bandmaster Heisler was at it in front of the Commandant's wharf with his band again. They couldn't, they wouldn't, they couldn't stay away from him. They could not let him go to bed in peace, without piling on more music, and they were out in the early hour again to play the Commandant out of the city.

Streaming across the Bay of Fundy from beautiful Nova Scotia to New Brunswick was delightful. There was great shouting as he stepped from the boat to the "War Chariot," a great warlike, glorious welcome, and on reaching the Barracks the Commandant delivered a brief address from the chariot.

A SPLENDID BANQUET.

That was a well got-up thing, and no mistake, and was a great evidence of love and loyalty.

Banquet over, reporters interviewed, Glenglow costumes were donned, and now for the triumphal march and open air.

The Mechanics' Institute was nicely clothed with a very attentive crowd, who were as anxious to hear the departing Commissary.

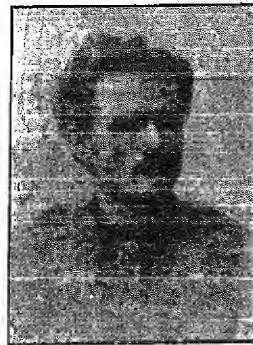

After two illuminaries, an excellent, warm and inspiring farewell address was read by the Provincial Officer, for their leaders, the flag, and the Army.

ADJUTANT GAGE, who, by the way, was on the spot, and who has been promoted to the rank of Staff-Captain, gave expression to the feelings of the Eastern troops, many of whom could not be present.

Adjutant McDonald added to the pleasure of the visit to Halifax by providing a splendid banquet for the officers at the Rescue Home.

The Commandant just needs go and see the Shelter, which is in a good state of progression for an old East-

STAFF CAPT. GAGE, PROMOTED TO THE COMMANDANT'S FAREWELL VISIT, ST. JOHN, N.B.

The Commandant's rising and appearing to the front was the scene of an outburst of enthusiasm, which was as well kept up as in Halifax. The Commandant was "off again" and it kept some of our friends well employed to hold themselves together. To see that crowd laugh and be free did one good. They appeared to be ready to sit until the night watch, to such a stirring talk.

THE COUNCILS.

Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, the Commandant began his farewell Councils with the Officers, which were resumed at 2.30 and 6 p.m. At each sitting, though personally the Commandant was very much "under the weather" through the continual strain upon him, it was manifest he was deeply anxious to make the best use of this, his last opportunity, to instruct and advise those much-loved Eastern Officers.

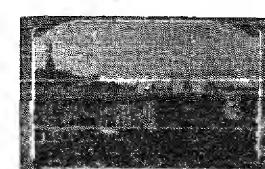

Dr. Jean, N.B., from Carlton side.

"REWARD," was the Commandant's inspired topic.

The first words of many Officers' testimonies were those of deep thankfulness to God for ever being permitted to meet with the Commandant and Mrs. Booth, and the regret at having to say "good-bye." Brigadier Scott was "Molasses" again. As to Mrs. Booth, in particular, and because of her absence, there was very much said. Referring to the ever-present smile of Mrs. Booth, one Officer said, "Oh, but for one more look upon Mrs. Booth before she leaves! But this is impossible, I suppose!"

THE ALL-NIGHT OF PRAYER

was very helpful. God came to our assistance, and set free the captives, and there was some "opening and letting the Master in."

Open-Air Meet., the Market Square, St. John, N.B.

After spending the morning in important business with Brigadier Scott, the Commandant was hurried off to open at 2 o'clock, previous to leaving at 4.30 for Montreal.

THE NEW RESCUE HOME

Knowing our difficulties and hazardous, our old, much valued, and beloved friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, have come to our assistance again in a most practical way by donating to the Army a fine house for the use of the Home. But before passing on to the opening, we must thank dear Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, not only for the gift of this house—which they bought recently, and specially for the Home at a cost of $2,000 odd—but for the very beautiful spirit shown by carassing the city for furniture, etc., to fit it. Mr. Bullock having in his mind the thought of teaching the citizens of St. John that they need to show their love by such donations to aid the Home on behalf of the city.

There was a good number of very kind and influential friends present, especially ladies. Interesting addresses were given by the Rev. Mr. Gates, Rev. Mr. Teesdale, and the Rev. Mr. Raymond, each receiving their high appreciation for the work.

The Commandant's address on this occasion was excellent, in which he referred to our Social work generally. He referred to the erecting of a hospital at the rear of the premises, which seemed to be necessary in this case. Rev. Mr. Gates promised to bring the matter up again in the city.

The Market Square, St. John, N.B.

The Home opened, the friends giving the Commandant a good-bye, we were on our way to the depot, where a good number of Officers had assembled to shake hands and bid their beloved leader adieu.

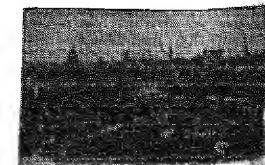

There had been great preparations made here in the way of mottos.

The Commandant's farewell address in the afternoon was the open-leaf of much interest and enthusiasm. Here, again, he "got off" and amid the smiles and cheering of these Comrades, did he give them in brief the account of his four years' warfare in fair Canada. This was followed up by a down-right hard and impressive battle speech in the evening, during which meeting he delivered one more of those stirring Bible talks which told spell all present, from the Minister sitting in the gallery, who appeared to drink in every word, down to the common man. Four emus found their way to rest and peace through believing.

It was very evident that the P. O., Staff-Captain Southall and Adjutant Archibald had been working hard to show their deep affection for their leader. On stepping from the train in the afternoon,

Then Brigadier Jacobs burst into a fresh place, and Staff-Captain all road a loving farewell.

The Commandant was in style and was warmed up with enthusiasm. The reporters enjoyed the whole affair, and the public made in great style to the Commandant to Yours Truly.

What a rush this trip was, what with several days and the trains, an all-night of the great enthusiasm. It was easily forgotten.

God bless those Eastern Comrades! What love, what their leader!

All the way from Montreal, not a station was passed where we had a Corps but that with some comrades, were to pass through the car and sit with their beloved Commandant, with endless signs of it; enthusiasm, loyalty, beyond doubt. Didn't they want to go East again? Let it be seen!

The newspapers gave appreciative reports of commandant's addresses, and generally.

That song of "Bundman Dowton's" "took the cake" (had the money too). Will be sent on the words to yours truly as promised?

Then Brigadier Jacobs broke out in a fresh aria, and Staff-Capt. Southall read a loving farewell address.

The Commandant was in splendid style and was warmed up by their enthusiasm. The reporters, too, enjoyed the whole affair, and after the meeting sprang in great terms of the Commandant to Yours Truly.

What a rush this trip has been! what with several days and nights in the trains, an all-night of prayer, and the great enthusiasm, it will not be easily forgotten.

The newspapers gave lengthy and appreciative reports of the Commandant's addresses, and Army work generally.

Social Farm Advances.

The Social Farm is right up to date in every department. The crops are coming along fine, while the men God bless them, are nearly all saved.

The Commandant, while at Guelph recently, made some glowing statements about the Social Farm. A gentleman from Guelph has since visited the farm, and after viewing the whole affair, fully corroborated what Our Tremendous lot of work has been put into the farm by the Colonists, and quite a bit of work was handed out of the farm by the bee formed of Reservoir staff.

THE JUNIOR SOLDIERS' WAR.

The direction of the Junior War were wise enough long since to take advantage of the merits of the Local, who is, with all respect at times equal in merit to the F. O. That is, he would be Field Officer, but that circumstances prevent his applying. And one result of the utilization of the latent talent of our Corps in the children's work has been the remarkable advance as shown by the following figures of Great Britain and Ireland.

J. S. advances from March, 1894, to March, 1895:

is also a coming force. That is, before a youth has time to become unduly rooted in local surroundings, he is headed for apprenticeship. He particularly binds him-off to his simple duty of consecration for the world's salvation. He is destined for the War. God has chosen him. In a special sense, he is a son apart, and his ambition is to fit himself thoroughly for his great career. There are already 500 applicants, and by the end of May it is anticipated that 500 will be definitely accepted.

The sudden death of Colonel North, following close upon that of Baron Birch, has set people thinking. Both men were speculators, millionaires, horse-racing men, favorites of the hang-on of that repulsive thing—the betting world. North had a palace built at Eltham, near London, and hospitality, in the form of champagne lunches and suppers, was boundless. Not a word of religion bearing is reported to have passed his lips. At a recent election, at which he was a candidate, two of his chief supporters were prize fighters. A paper, friendly to his party, describes him in his taste for alcoholic liquors as "an enemy to thirst." What a lesson was that swollen corpse at the table of the wealthy syndicate, leaving millions in the twinkling of an eye to stand actors in Motor. The funeral is to be a magnificent affair, but not a word is spoken of the poor man's soul.

3. The "Envoy" is a new "Local Officer" created especially for the benefit of the villages. The D. O. Frankel of the quarterly press for a village, can work in any of his Envys, so that with the head oversight of the F. O., a simple and economical system is created.

Indeed, whilst speaking of Local Officers, it may be well to emphasize the fact that our "Locals" are greatly developing in culture. The "Crank" is passing into the things that have been.

SEVEN JOIN THE REGULAR ARMY
—ANOTHER SQUAD OF RECRUTS SOON.

On Thursday evening last, a goodly number of people were present to witness the swearing in of seven of our recruits. This has proved themselves worthy of being enrolled as soldiers under our good old Army flag, and we gave them a hearty welcome. As the rules were read, their serious faces and their earnest responses give us good reason to believe that they understood the vow they were taking, and that they intend to be true soldiers. There are several recruits now on the roll whose turn is soon to come. Soldiers will soon be here. Thus the war goes on in Calgary. Hallelujah!—Lieut. Mob.

GRAND FORKS

SATAN IS NERVOUS, THEY SAY.
BUT THE GRAND FORKS WARRIORS ARE GOING TO WIN.

Praise God for the results of our efforts to pull down the kingdom of the devil. He is getting dead in earnest about his supposed victims, who really did look like very promising subjects for his mastery only a short time ago. When out visiting, people meet us half-way to the side-walk, and forbid us coming any farther, and telling us that they don't want salvation; it is a sure sign that the devil is getting very nervous about something.

Our comrades are getting warmed up, and are all in for going at it with effort, and strike hard while the iron is hot.—Capt. G. A. Silvert, Training Garrison.

THE NEW CAPTAIN—AN UNHOLELY REPORT — THREE BACKSLIDERS HOME.

It is about time we let you know how we are getting along here in this pretty little town, called "the Golden Gate to the West." It is three weeks since I arrived here at 7 a.m. and found a crowd of soldiers waiting to welcome me. The Lieutenant was a week later. We are both quite in love with the place and people, and are going in to do our best to win them for God. We have had the joy of seeing three backsliders return to the fold, and believing to see others soon. The Lord is good to His people, and we are in to praise Him, and tell of His wonderful love.—Capt. MacKenzie and Lieut. Beaumont.

'THEY KEEP UP THE PRAYING AND FIGHTING — GOOD FOR THE CITY OFFICIALS — GOD BLESS THE METHODISTS — IT BLEW A HURRICANE.'

We are still on the war-path in this part of the battlefield. Since our last report four corps have found salvation. Our platform is filling up, God helping us. A good work is being done in the open-air. One of the latest moves in the right direction on the part of the city officials is that they have taken all the saloons and billiard places away. The Lord of Hosts will see to it.

*Latter.—We have just had a grand weekend. Saturday night, at our meeting, one young soldier, John, an orphan, at eleven o'clock we marched 24 strong to the Methodist church by special invitation where Mr. Spoor, one of our Social cause members spoke to us on "The Salvation Army. *We have never had a better lecture than the S. A. before. Among the many things he said was this: "When I see a man of humble salvationist pass along the street, I feel like hailing my son and saying, 'God bless you!' GOD BLESS THE CATHOLICS AND THE CONGREGATIONALISTS — WELCOME ADJUTANT GOODWIN AND CHEER FOR THE JAMES-TOWN WARRIORS;

The devil is still ruging here in our little town, but we, as a peculiar people, mean to win the day. One brother will be thanked God we were a peculiar people. So do I. The people of Jamestown like the peculiar people. Our Catholic man said he could not keep house without the War Cry. Always ready to buy one.

Ensign McKenzie has been here with his G. B. M. Boxes and Lantern. The Lantern Service was held in the Congregational Church, and the interesting pictures of Mrs. Booth and Orange Harriet were appreciated by a full house. Adjutant MacNamara took charge of the meeting here last night and was greeted with a volley of Aves. We are very sorry to lose our mother, but since Headquarters believed it is best for us to have a new one, we shall have to be satisfied.

May God's blessing go with the Adjutant in her noble work of saving souls. We are preparing to give him his Officer, Adjt. Gordwin, a hearty welcome, for we want everyone to feel at home in Jamestown. She will have the privilege of speaking in a new hall, for our barracks is being newly painted and painted. We are going to have the finest hall in the District.—J. M. Dearborn Reg. Cor.

DEVIL'S LAKE.

Ensign McKenzie has paid us another visit and has given us a Lantern Service, which was appreciated. He also invited seven Recruits under the flag. Good crowds, good collections. ## MOOSOMIN.

Major Bennett paid us a visit this week. A time of blessing and inspiration. It is hard to get the people to come to our meetings, but thank God we can get at them in the open air. Things are on the up-grade, both physically and spiritually. Our Soldiers are determined to kick the devil and sin. We never will give over; we never will give in.—Collin Campbell, Capt.

MANDAN.

On Friday we had a united meeting. Bazaar conducted in full force, with the place packed out. Hundreds outside. We held a Soldiers' Council until 1:30 a.m., as the Bazaar folks could not go home until the 2 a.m. train. We had a profitable time; 8 bought the blessing of a clean heart. On Saturday + juniors got saved. Roll on the Gospel Charlot till every soldier is saved.—Adjt. M. Ayre.

SAD FATALITY.

GRAND BANK, NFNL.—One of our banking scholars just came in a few days after leaving, with flag half-mast, and containing the sad intelligence that two of her crew were lost. A dairy had upset and one man was drowned, while the other got off the bottom of the dory and got his arm through the rope. When found he was almost unconscious, and died as soon as he was put on the schooner. He had such a hold of the rope that it had to be cut in his grip. It has cast a momentary gloom over the place, and over more the warning comes home, "Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live." One leaves a wife and one child, and the other was unmarried.—H. Crichton, Ensign.

MRS. BOOTH.

It to grace there is no limit,
Why should I be slow to plead?
If His power is not restricted,
Why not speak my utmost need?

This came to me from a Toronto lad in '06, my dear Mrs. Booth, I should so much like to tell you before you go how dear some of your songs have been to me and my mind. I have been thinking about the words of it, "UPWARD LOOK," and we have reason to be at work very early in the morning one day this week, I was watching the soft green elms-tuts as I hurried down the silent paved street before the rest of the world was stirring. The light of the rising sun was gilding the tree-tops with radiance, and every blossom pointed to the blue above. I thought I walked in a world of shining gold, and I could only feel my heart swell with thankfulness and happiness for the thrill and the joy of service."

But my glance fell suddenly and suddenly down to the earth, for I came up to the only people moving. They were two gutter-scavengers, squalls and dirty, groping with their hands amongst a heap of the last night's rubbish, spilling the pure air with bad smoke. As I passed, I caught a snitch of their ill-tempered talk, "Morning, we're still working," they were talking against their Master, my friend Lord, despising His love and His existence, with such words that my soul repelled her in horror! To think of the pity of it, that they should shut themselves in to a little half of their own of false thoughts, vice talk, and foul tobacco-fume as bats to the heaven of love and truth around them! And I prayed, oh, how I prayed, that I may always "UPWARD LOOK," for it came to me like a revelation how possible it is for any one of us to become nothing better than earthworms groping in the dust of life. I shall never forget you, or your song."

"I think of your farewell with deepest regret," says CAPTAIN KEAN, of Dilke. "I have always cherished the hope of seeing you once, but if I am never privileged to do so this side of eternity, I shall always think that I was able to stand by the flag and fight beneath its colors, and I pray that it may wave above my grave when I go home to meet our great Salvation Army above. I leave only to leave the heart and mind of Jesus."

"I trust God will take you safely across the Atlantic," writes MRS. MARY ELLIS, "and richly bless you in your new command. I believe God's Army is more strongly welded together today than ever. By His grace I shall live and die a soldier."

"Oh, that I long ago had the same love and trust for my leaders that I have to-day! What a better officer I might have been—but all I can do now is to go forward and practice the loyalty you have instilled in me. When I think of your untold kindness and good advice, to me oh, I do feel so awfully fit of it all, and thank you for what you have led me to see a true Salvationist should be!" So writes a lassie who now ranks amongst our best fighters.

"Accept this little note," says Mrs. ADJUTANT GAGE, "as an assurance that among all our Eastern officers, both Staff and Field, you have had our sympathy, our tears, and our prayers alike. We have felt when you entered through trial that we entered into it, and shared it with you. There is One who will go with us all the way, in the darkness, and in the sorrow. He will never leave us alone. How precious it is to know that! God loves, and strengthens, and sustains you amidst all the din of battle to the end."

that a great quantity of the farewell correspondence from my previous sister-warriors I am unable to add, simply because of the warm-hearted personal character that pervaded it, and, whilst I should not like to seem to be singing my own praises, nevertheless I cannot refrain from thanking you all again and again for the glowing expressions of gratitude, affection and devotion. As I bid you, once more, adieu, I can only repeat that if in any way I have brought you blessing whilst I have been in your midst in this country, believe me I am only too thankful that it is so, and the desire of my heart has been fulfilled. Once more I commend you to the love and care of your Heavenly Father, "till the day break and the shadows flee away."—C. B.

Rescue Items.

OUR Rescue Home in this Territory accommodates 133 women and 53 babies.

HAMILTON, recently opened, has already ten girls in the Rescue Home. ADJUTANT WARD has 27 of a household to provide for in the Ottawa Rescue Home.

MR. BELL, St. John's Newfoundland, while in Toronto gave Mrs. Major Head five dollars for the League of Mercy.

THE CANADIAN Women's Social Work is to be re-created at the coming Industrial Exhibition in London, England.

MONTREAL Rescue Work has many good friends who have never failed to generously support the work.

NEARLY all the girls in St. John's, Nfld., Rescue Home profess to have found Salvation since entering the Home.

FIFTY DOLLARS was netted as result of special meeting in Winnipeg recently for the Rescue Home in that city.

BEFORE this "Cry" is in the hands of the readers, Ensign Fitzpatrick will have taken charge of the Spokane Rescue Home.

ONE CASE has been admitted already in the new Rescue Home in Helena, Mont.

TWO HUNDRED and sixty-six ($206) have been donated to that Home, and $1000 more will be given in future.

LONDON had fifteen girls and ten children in the Rescue Home a few days ago, while Toronto Home has an average of 18 girls and 6 babies at the time.

BRIGADIER JACOBS and Mrs. Major Head waited upon the Board of Control of Toronto City Council on behalf of Women's Rescue Home in that city. The Army gets the grant.

Breezes from the Southern District, Newfoundland.

Just had a little trip round part of the District, Garnish and Berisford being first on the programme. Over sea, mud, bog and snow we got there. Garnish, Sunday. No roads, but two dedications. Berisford, 18-mile walk. Beautiful country, only needs the Salvation Army to put down stables and claim thousands of acres of good land for Farm Colony. Why not open up Newfoundland. The only way to bring it up to date. Three meetings here in Berisford, and devil got lost to the tune of five souls. Hallelujah! Believing for more. Dedicated with Miriam Foster to God and the Army. Boarded steamer for Grand Bank. Capt. Newman left here and Mrs. Crichton came on for Hermitage Cove, 10-mile walk to Seal Cove, and was lost twice, but got there O. K. Nice meetings and + good. Uncle Robert, Uncle Simon and Uncle George got ship packed up and took us back to Grand Bank, and here we are pinching away at the devil's feet till he'll move.—H. Crichton, Ensign.

FINALLY, I should like to explain

ROUGH, TOUGH AND GLORIOUS DAYS

In Newfoundland.

Six Weeks' Touring in the Northern District.

D. C. FREEMAN'S WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE.

40 PENITENTS, 55 ENROLMENTS — 3 WEDDINGS — WHO CAN BEAT THIS RECORD? — FROM EN-SIGN FREEMAN, NORTHERN DISTRICT, NEWFOUNDLAND.

PELLEY'S ISLAND.

While at Pelley's Island, one of our faithful soldiers was promoted to Glory, which detained me a day or two longer than I intended. Bro. Nicholas Jewell, who was, told on one side for 12 months or more, passed away to be with Jesus on Sunday morning. His father died very suddenly on Monday, and, worst of all, no person ever knew of him being converted. Sinners beware!

It was the wish of our departed comrade to have an Army funeral. Although it was very stormy, quite a number gathered around the graveside and listened to the testimonies given by the soldiers, who knew our comrade's life.

NEW BAY HEAD.

Eleven hours' journeying through woods and on ice brought us to New Bay Head. We were entertained again by our kind friends, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce. Meeting in the school-house that night.

EXPLOITS.

The next morning, we get our packs on our backs and move on again for Exploits. We put up at Mr. Denton's, Northern Harbor, to get something to eat before we go any further, and about three o'clock in the afternoon we were safe at home in Lieut. Hiscock's quarters.

The Lieutenant had had a Banquet here at this place, and managed to clear off some debt. There has been 23 soldiers added to the roll during the winter.

When I arrived here I got the scent of a marriage and got it hunted up and arranged for the following week.

APOSTOLIC NEWFOUNDLANDERS.

I also heard that Major Sharp was at Botwoodville waiting for me. That is a distance of about 28 miles or so. The next morning at six o'clock we left with two dogs and sled. Before we were many miles we wished the dogs were home again, as we had to coax them on. In the face of a snow-storm that came on we managed to go ahead, and after seven hours we covered about 20 miles, put up at Mr. Jones' and got some dinner, then started off for Botwoodville. Before we got there, Lieut. Hiscock laid down on the ice twice, almost forced to give up, and I managed to cheer him up, and at 6 o'clock we were landed alight.

The Major was gone.

BOTWOODVILLE.

We went in to make the next day — Sunday — a day of victory. After a hard fight with the old chap, we managed to free him from his grasp, and we all gave God the glory. Captain Show has got the new Barracks opened, and while there I enrolled 8 recruits under the flag, and 5 Juniors. The Captain also had a Banquet for the Talent Scheme, and got enough thereto to strike his Target and a little over.

On Monday, Lieutenant Hiscock and myself walked five miles to a telegraph office to wire the Major, and after doing so, got answer. "Come to Botwoodville," so set out at 8:30 that morning. I jumped on board train and arrived in the morning. I met Major. We proceeded to Whitburn, settling business on the train. Major went on to St. John's, and at 1:40 I left again for Botwoodville, arriving there at 8:30 next morning.

I had breakfast with our Mad friends, Mr. and Mrs. Burt, and at 11:30 we set again to walk or ride, whatever we could do best, as we had the two dogs and sled. After we had gone about five miles, we got a sail rigged up, and it helped us quite a lot for a time, while the wind was fair. After 81-2 hours, walking most of the way, we arrived at Exploits just in time for that wedding, which we could not afford to lose at such a time as this, when money is scarce.

MARRIED.

The interested parties were Charles Badgell and Eliza Stride. They were supported by Sergeant Lock and Stride; the "I wills" were said out clearly and distinctly, the happy couple gave their testimonies, and said they were determined to do their best for God.

BLACK ISLAND.

Next day we started for Black Island, and laid the house full at night. The people of God had perfect liberty; they were not afraid to dance. Bro. Hill is alright now, as his wife is enrolled as a soldier.

MORTON'S HARBOR.

I went in to the school, and spoke a few words to the children. Captain Butt is doing her best to train the children. And now the next six miles will bring us home. Junior Sergeant-Major Jennings gave us a ride with his horse and sled, and at 11 o'clock on Saturday, we could sing, "Home Once More." There are lots of mail on hand and piles of work. On Sunday night we had four souls saved. Hallelujah!

I was gone six weeks, and travelled about 300 miles by foot, and 400 by train, saw about 40 at the pentecostal, and enrolled about 40 senior soldiers and 13 junior soldiers, conducted three weddings, buried one soldier, dedicated six children, and got more of God myself.—H. Freeman, D. O.

FORTUNE.

Thank God we are still alive and having good times. We had a farewell meeting Sunday night, and on Tuesday day we welcomed our new officers. Every one enjoyed themselves well. We had with us on Sunday our Comrades from the Bank. It would do you good to hear them thank God for a Saviour that can keep on the sea as well as on the land.—Lonsdale Hebbeth.

ST. JOHN'S I.

ALL-ROUND ADVANCES — SEVEN MORE SOULS SAVED.

Although blocked in by ice, and for some time have had no communication with the outside world, still we have been going on. A man and wife have been saved lately, and both are on the platform. He was a great drunkard, and a heavy tobacco user, but God has saved him from both. An unSaved man from an out-harbor, asked for a collecting card last S. D. week. He just returned with it, having collected $6.25. It will be a good contribution to the Talent Scheme. Last night he got saved. Praise God! Capt. Mugford, from U. S. A., led the meeting on Tuesday. He gave an address on the S. A. War in that country, also his own experience. Seven souls were saved at the close.—E. H. Allan, Ensign.

CLARENCEVILLE.

STRUCK THE TARGET.

We can praise God for victory. The good work is still going on. Although the devil is at work on every hand, yet we are our stay. For my own part, I feel more determined to uplift Jesus than ever I did, and to stick to the good old Army flag. The kind friends around here nobly assisted in helping us raise our Target for the "Talent Scheme." God bless them!—Yours truly to the S. A. War, Capt. Geo. Thompson.

WESTERN BAY.

We have had some good marches and meetings. Our crowds are good. One dear young man who attended our meetings all winter we miss. The ice came in the harbor, and while trying to get some seals, he was driven away on it, and has not since been heard of. His poor old mother is nigh heart-broken. Brother Kennedy, who fought nobly the past winter, has said good-bye for Canada. God bless him! At 8 am, three seals in the Fountain. Jesus lived up to the truth.—J. H. Deasy, Capt.

STRATHROY.

STRIKE THE TALENT SCHEME TARGET — WAR CRIES GO LIKE MAILED SYRUP.

We are having some good meetings here. Two souls saved. Praise God! We had Ensign Crawford from New York with us for the week-end, also J. S. Sergt.-Major Wright, of London. We all enjoyed their visit very much.

Soldiers and Christians all on fire.

We have, by God's help, got our Talent Scheme Target. War Cries go like mailed syrup.—Lieut. L. Switzer for Capt. J. Crawford.

BERLIN.

KNIFE-DRILL UP FROM FOUR TO TWENTY-EIGHT — SOULS BEING SAVED.

Our hearts do indeed say praise the Lord for His wonderful works to the children of men. For a long time Berlin has been looked upon as a hard place, but we want to remind our readers that God is working in our midst and giving victory. This past week we can report six souls, two for cleansing and four for pardon. Knife-drills gone up from four to 28. Finances and crews good. War Cries all sold out Saturday afternoon; we have increased our order. Converts going in to do all they can to lead their companions to Jesus.—Lieut. Hollett for Capt. Whealan.

Trepid love is worse than no love. Self-indulgence is the essence of sin.

THE WAR CRY.

Lieut McPherson,

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., AMONG THE REDEEMED.

Again death has come and broken our ranks. This time Lieut. McPherson, of Westville, N. S., lays down the cross, and takes up the crown. He gave every evidence of being ready to meet his God. Pray for the beloved family, who feel the loss very keenly. Slamer, get ready, your turn will surely come. God bless you!—Iida Hendricks, Ensign.

—II—

Called Quickly.

FATHER KATING, OF BELLEVILLE, GONE TO GLORY.

Father Kating, who has been a soldier of this Corps for 12 years, has passed away. His home, before being saved, was the drinking saloon, his comforter being the pipe at all times. He was a complete slave of drink and tobacco. He saw some of his drinking associates saved from drink, the results of attending the Salvation Army. Hearing the Army drum, he was attracted away from the bar-room; result, gloriously saved. He was a real slave of tobacco for over fifty years, and often would have to get up in the night to have a pull at the pipe. God gave him a wonderful deliverance from it. He was one of the oldest soldiers of the corps and was an example in many respects to every soldier. While very poor in health, he would often be in the marches, when many other soldiers would except himself, to tell him he took his dinner on a Sunday morning, went out to ride his horse, and was gone for a few minutes after in a dying condition. Heart disease was the trouble. We give him an Army funeral. He leaves behind him a sorrowing wife, who is a faithful soldier, and a family of children, all grown up, many unsaved. May it result in their salvation!—H. C. Kendall, Capt.

—II—

Treasurer Sharp, Spokane,

PROMOTED HIGHER.

The Angel of Death has been visiting us, and in the last week the twin bubbles of Bro. and Sister Culver have been called away, and Sister Carrie Sharp, for some time treasurer of the Corp., has also been called up higher, to receive a faithful soldier's reward. While able to take an active part in the work, the life and testimony of our promoted comrade was a blessing and inspiration to very many who "rise up and call her blessed." During her illness, many who visited her came away feeling that in her sick room they had received words of cheer and blessing that would make the braver in her battle. We gave her an Army funeral, and at her memorial service one poor prodigal returned unto his Father's house, and is on our platform testifying to God's power to save and keep. It was our comrade's request that every effort should be put forth at her funeral services to get some one saved. "I am all right; get some one else to come to Jesus," and her desire was granted. We pray for her family that they may meet her on the other side. God bless them!—Jesse E. Milner, Ensign.

—II—

Death at Spokane.

EFFIE WOODWARD CALLED HOME.

Again the Reaper—Death—has been among us, and taken from us Comrade Effie Woodward. She had been ill for some time, but up to the last her faith was strong that the Lord would heal her. No one who saw her could fail to be impressed with her spiritual trust in God. But "He who despiseth things earthly will value it otherwise, and when the chariot lowered our comrade was ready and was welcomed to her mansion above by the angels and the redeemed. We give her an Army burial and believe her death may mean life to many others. May God bless her family and friends.

"There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;

He bears our best loved things away, And then we call them 'dead.'

He leaves our hearts all desolate, He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers;

Transplanted into biles, they now Adorn immortal bower.

And ever near us, though unseen, Two bear immortal spirits tread: For all the bounding universe Is life—there are no dead!"

J. E. Milner, Ensign.

A Model Report

of the G. E. M. Work in West Ontario.

2,000 G. E. M. BOXES IN THE PROVINCE—100 BLOOD AND FIRE AGENTS—COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS PRAISE THE ARMY.

The G. E. M. is still booming in the West Ontario Province; 500 new boxholders in the last three months is not so bad, which makes over 2,000 for the Province, and we have over 100 Blood and Fire Agents that can't be beaten. Take Beall and Mrs. Box and Mrs. Dowser and Scott, for instance. These four alone will do $100 between them this quarter. If any Province can beat them, I would like them to come along.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS HELP US.

If you want to hear something about the Salvation Army, go into some station-room and listen to the Commercial Travellers praising the Army's Social operations while they are dropping their coppers in a G. E. M. box that stands on the wicket.

AN EXTRAORDINARY DODGE.

There are now over 30 boxes exhibited on Hotel bars and over 30 on Station wickets, and the end is not yet. WALLACEBURG is the place to get a crowd. We had the Barnacks crowd. The people were highly delighted with the scenes. Four new Agents have been appointed here.

SARNIA frenzies must have thought we were a dry crowd. We had just commenced our open-air, when they came rustling down the road, and fastening the hose to the nearest hydrant, threw streams of water in the air, which drove our crowd away, but we stood our ground.

BARNUM'S CIRCUS OUTDONE.

WYOMING.—Bro. Smith's draw was brought into action, and with drums, torches, flag and cornet, we drew the attention of friend and foe, and gathered notoriety. The children must have thought Barnum had struck the village.

GLENBROOK has one store, a sawmill, and a S. A. Barnacks. We scattered twenty Blood and Fire Soldiers on the mire, being the first march they have had for six months. Bro. Lucas holds the fort. We had a good meeting, and one soul, making the fifth for week. Praise God!—Ensign Schobell, P. A.

Light Brigade Notes from the E. O. P.

Sister Ellery, of Port Hope, made quite an increase over last quarter, and I must take note, is intent on hunting Alice Birch, of Cobourg. She will find it tough work, but we'll wait.

Local Agent Birch has for some time held top place, but now we salute Brother Garrett, of Tweed, as the champion of the Light Brigade. It will be hard work for him to keep it, for Sister Ellery will make a desperate effort to regain it, to say nothing of Mrs. Lowes, of Peterboro, and Sister Ellery, of Port Hope.

I had almost forgotten to mention the plucky Dutchman and his wife, of Lakewood. He takes his hat to meet excursion boats, and gets a good sum in it to help Lazarus. He is champion Boxholder of the E. O. P. Now, ye other L. A.'s and boxholders, consider you not try the same sort of thing!

—Capt. Sims, Provincial Agent.

NORTH-WEST G. E. M. ITEMS.

AN EX-MAYOR, A POST-MASTER AND A MINISTER HELP FEED LAZARUS.

Social League members have gone far above our target. This week alone more than half the target for the quarter has been struck, and 32 ladies and gentlemen have signed the League Application form, signifying their intention to stand by us in this work to the tune of not less than $5 per annum. Among them is an ex-Mayor, a Post Master, and a Methodist Minister. Fire a volley!

The boxes are going out by the hundreds. Yes, 200 in month.

Success to all other P. A.'s, but they will need a lot of Agents like the North-West, to be so!—Ensign F. McKenzie, Provincial Agent.

—III—

THE BOWERY has a weekly average of nearly 120, Lazarus with about 90.

A word to all concerned. Let us time to tarry. The J. S. War needs

all your attention. Let it have it.

Comrades. Let your work be solid and it will stand. We don't want any shot work. Get down to hard work and use your brains. God bless the Z. S. War!—Ensign Attwell.

A recent number of the "Orilla Packet" has a cut of Adjutant Hay speaking about his promotion, and the appointment of Commissioner Ba Booth to this Territory.
